

Music Notes

Summer Music Fun

Community Day at The Woodruff

Sunday, June 03, 2012 | 11:00AM to 5:00PM

People of all ages are welcome to enjoy the following FREE activities at Community Day:

- Free admission to the High Museum of Art and an art workshop for the whole family.
- Interactive performances and hands-on activities (storytelling, puppet shows, a community art project, multi-cultural music, dance and more) by Young Audiences.
- An "instrument petting zoo" by the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra.
- Alliance Theatre reading of "Wish You Were Here" by Pearl Cleage - a poem written for this anniversary by the award winning author and playwright - as well as acting workshops and performances of "Waiting for Balloon."
- Q & A session with Atlanta native Alfred Uhry, the author of "Driving Miss Daisy" and recipient of a Tony Award, Academy Award and Pulitzer Prize.

Check out all the free concerts around town, or get tickets to hear the Atlanta Symphony play at Chastain Park it is great evening for the family.

Attention Rising 4th Graders

This is the year you have been waiting for. It is your turn to choose what type of music class you will take; Band, Orchestra, or Chorus. You can choose from the following instruments

Band: Flute, Clarinet, Alto Saxophone, Tenor Saxophone, Trumpet, French Horn, Trombone, Percussion, and hopefully Tuba!

Orchestra: Violin, Viola, Cello and Double Bass

A letter will be sent home at the beginning of the school year with information about purchasing, or renting instruments. If you have questions over the summer about instruments please send me an email melia\_foley@fc.dekalb.k12.ga.us

Cool Websites for Kids

Learn about composers and their music at Classics for Kids.

<http://www.classicsforkids.com/>

The Dallas Symphony Orchestra has a great place with musical games to play.

<http://www.dsokids.com/default.aspx>

Don't miss the San Francisco Symphony's kids site.

<http://www.sfskids.org/templates/splash.asp>

The premier orchestra in the land is the New York Philharmonic—check out their site for kids.

<http://www.nyphilkids.org/main.phtml?>

